EARLY CAREER/PhD SESSION

Are you working towards a research degree in law, or a law-related subject?
Are you in the early stages of an academic career in law?
Is this the first SLS conference that you have attended?

If your answer to any of these questions is yes, you are most welcome to join us for a drinks reception on Monday 10th September 2007 to be held at Durham Castle. This will also give you the opportunity to meet other delegates at a similar stage in their career.

Directions to Collingwood College

How to get here

By Car

From the South and East
Drive north on the A(M) and exit at Junction 61. Take the A177 signposted Bowburn and Peterlee. Follow the road, through Bowburn, for approximately three miles until you enter Durham on the Stockton Road. Turn left at the first roundabout and then left again at the "New Inn" traffic lights into South Rd. Continue up South Road for half a mile. Turn left where signposted to Collingwood and take the right fork onto Collingwood's driveway.

From the North and East
Drive south on the A(M) and exit at Junction 62. Take the A690 to Durham.
Follow the dual carriageway and at the first roundabout go straight ahead. Turn left just before the next roundabout into New Elvet and follow the road for approximately half a mile (bearing right into Church Street) to the New Inn traffic lights. Go straight ahead into South Road and then follow the instructions given above.

From the West
Drive on the A167 to the Cock of the North roundabout (junction with the A177). Take the Durham A177 exit into South Road. and follow it for approximately half a mile. Turn right just after the bus shelter and right again onto the driveway.

Society of Legal Scholars

Annual Conference

10 - 13 September 2007 Durham University

Foreword

The broad theme of this year's conference is Diversity and Difference. The three plenary sessions open with an address by the Rt Hon Dame Sian Elias, Chief Justice of New Zealand, followed by a Panel of distinguished experts discussing Equality Duties. In the third plenary the Rt Hon The Baroness Hale will talk about her judicial and extra-judicial writings on law and legal education in a conversation chaired by Professor Rosemary Hunter and with contributions from some of the subject sections.

Durham is an exceptional city full of architectural gems built around the winding River Wear. Accommodation, breakfast and lunches are at Collingwood College, as are the publishers' exhibitions. Plenary sessions and subject section meetings all take place on the University Science Site. The first evening reception, including an introductory reception for early career researchers, is at the Castle (University College) which is situated on the Cathedral peninsula. The Annual Dinner on 12th September is in Beamish Hall. The Tuesday evening includes a welcome reception for distinguished guests and past and future Presidents of the Society, the announcement of the winners of the 2007 Birks prizes, and a ceilidh.

The Law Department conference team, Roger Masterman, Erika Rackley and I very much look forward to seeing you in Durham.
