Brief report on project (maximum 150 words)

The CORALE Study Stakeholder Conference took place on 16 June 2023 at Trinity College Dublin. It brought together academics, clinicians and policymakers to discuss the right to conscientious objection in termination of pregnancy services in Ireland in an inclusive an open environment (it was held under the Chatham house rule). We had 70 registered delegates, including research students, and the conference had been advertised in the SLS newsletter.

The CORALE team presented preliminary empirical findings from qualitative interviews and the survey conducted as part of the project. Our team was represented by Prof. Joan Lalor (TCD, Nursing and Midwifery), Dr Andrea Mulligan (TCD, Law), Prof. Linda Hogan (TCD, Chair of Ecumenics) and Dr Desmond Ryan (TCD, Law). We also had a roundtable discussion with guest speakers: Dr Cathleen Kaveny (Boston College), Breedagh Hughes (Northern Ireland Abortion and Contraception Task Group) and Dr Clayton Ó Néill (Queen's University Belfast).
